SUMMARY

AI-forward campaign and program lead with 15 years across integrated pharma marketing, enterprise product delivery, and applied AI. I spent 7+ years translating campaign strategy into briefs, timelines, production requirements, and cross-functional execution for Fortune 500 brands, and I now build the AI workflows — intake, scoping, review routing, and content variation at scale — that make marketing teams faster. My strength is the operational hub: aligning stakeholders, standardizing execution into repeatable toolkits, and using AI tools like Claude to scale what works.
