SUMMARY

UX research and enterprise product leader with 15 years across user research, product strategy, enterprise UX, design systems, and cross-functional delivery. I built a UX research discipline across a 20+ product Marketing Intelligence Engine, scaled product design from 2 to 30 people, and translated research, analytics, competitive context, and stakeholder priorities into product decisions. My strongest fit for Smartsheet is connecting research roadmaps to business impact for B2B workflow products.
