SUMMARY

AI product strategy and design systems leader with 15 years across enterprise UX, product delivery, client discovery, and hands-on AI implementation. I turn ambiguous workflows into product direction, working prototypes, measurable improvements, and build-ready systems. For Figma Product Manager, Code, my strongest proof is connecting design systems to engineering delivery, building LLM/VLM products across front-end and backend logic, and scaling enterprise experiences used by 7,000+ people across 22 brands.
