SUMMARY

Integrated marketing and client-strategy leader with 15 years across brand campaigns, technical product storytelling, enterprise programs, and regulated communications. I spent 7+ years managing Fortune 500 pharma marketing programs with USD 2M-50M+ budgets across TV, radio, digital, gaming, Times Square, and unbranded initiatives, then expanded into enterprise product, research, and AI implementation. My strength is translating complex information into clear tools, presentations, and coordinated programs that move teams and stakeholders from strategy to execution.
