SUMMARY

Customer-facing product and account specialist with 15 years across client service, digital programs, software workflows, and platform adoption. I translate complex tools into clear walkthroughs, troubleshoot issues with stakeholders, and keep cross-functional work organized through resolution. Earlier in my career, I spent 7+ years managing Fortune 500 healthcare accounts across digital and multichannel programs. Ready to bring that foundation to retailer enrollment, social and search connectivity, and Salesforce-based customer support.
